private villa collection
OPULE NZ

DESIGNED BY NEW ZEALAND'S LEADING architect Andrew Patterson, this stunning property is situated in the highly sought after Dalefield region of Queenstown, New Zealand, placed halfway between historic Arrowtown and central Queenstown. Set in 5 acres with unrestricted rural views to the surrounding mountains, the house is cutting edge modern, but has a softness and comfort level that is unusual for this genre. Three solid white brick pavilions float on the edge of the lake, connected by rusted steel links, all held by a protective ring of trees which form a solid hedging to keep out the prevailing winds.
